The Nordic tracks of Trail Creek Ranch are a local treasure in our valley. We designed our highly breathable glove to honor aerobic individuals who charge that venue at the base of Teton Pass. Made for winter disciplines from classic and skate to fatbike and weekend biathlon, the construction features a breathable, wind-resistant shell that cuts the chill and sheds the elements, while the Pittards® goatskin palm with a Teton emboss keeps a grip on carbon poles, bike handles or tools for other valley pastimes, like fly rods. A phone-friendly fingertip dials you into your fitness apps.

Skinning or bootpacking with ski gloves gets hot and sweaty. Our solution-focused Uptrack is profiled for the sole purpose of gaining vertical — whether for fitness or glory. Breathable, waterproof shell fabric finds that fine line between sweaty palms and frozen fingers during max output grinds. Pittards® goatskin palms provide good grip while breathable 3-oz PrimaLoft® insulation and an interior wool lining add just the right degree of warmth. Low-pro knit cuffs slide on or off easily when switching between skin and stash modes. A phone-friendly fingertip ensures gramability for the best pow shots.
